

Project Name : S/S Design and Construction Consultant Service

Owner : ESSO (Thailand) Public Company Limited

Client : ESSO (Thailand) Public Company Limited

Period of Services : May 2018 – July 2020

Location : Throughout Thailand

Project Cost : NA

CR : <https://mgroonline.com>

Scope of Services and Description of Duties:

The specific function of the Engineering Site Supervision and Service Station Design and Construction Consultant Specialist is to provide peer to peer counseling to Construction and Dealer on ExxonMobil sites. The role is intended to supplement existing construction site. At the same time the Engineer and Specialist will assess and advice on effective implementation and execution of ExxonMobil construction and design processes in the field.

Role Description

- (1) Engineering site supervision are inclusive of
- Co-ordinate with dealer
 - Lead Project & construction kick-off meeting
 - Manage Project during field construction

- Provide expertise consultant including SSHE practice, image standard, and construction management to dealer and contractors
- Prepare and maintain Project Management documents including site layout, kick-off & final inspection checklist, project photos, endorsement emails, and etc.

(2) Service Station Design and Construction Consultant Specialist

- Design service station layout in all phases from conceptual to construction
- Prepare service station layout drawing for permission and for construction
- Prepare B.O.Q for service station construction bidding
- Ensure Esso service station standard be applied
- Support and provide advice to prospect dealers in service station layout/design, image standard/specification, cost estimation, construction progress tracking and quality inspection to meet company standard